

Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

Willington Public Library Presents:

Ye Olde Colonial Craftsmen Faire

Saturday, June 10, 2017

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

at Willington's Historical Town Green, on Rt 74

Traditional colonial trades and crafts

Farmers Market, music, games, and so much more!

Come for a fun filled & educational day, where history will come alive! Experience the sites and sounds of our past. Enjoy woodcarving, blacksmithing, weavers, & quilters, just to name a few of our artisans, who will have their handiwork available for purchase, so you can take a little bit of history home with you! Joining us will be Mr. & Mrs. Benjamin Franklin, The Nathan Hale Homestead, The 5th CT Regiment, Willington Historical Society's open house of Glazier Tavern on the Green, The Federated Church of Willington and Boy Scout Troop 82, who will hold a Flag Retirement Ceremony, at the end of the day...and much more!

This event is free to the public and will be held even in light rain.

Willington Public Library, 7 Ruby Rd, Willington, CT

For more information on this event,

please contact Debbie Linares, Programmer

at dlinares@willingtonpubliclibrary.org or 860-429-3854

